

PRESS RELEASE

FHP Spa presents its new corporate logo - a symbol of growth and integration between port and logistics activities

Carrara, 8 October 2024 - FHP Holding Portuale, leading Italian Group in the bulk cargo sector, operating in port and logistics activities, announces the launch of its new corporate logo, representing a new phase of growth and development.

The new logo retains the waves and the blue of the sea, symbolizing FHP's essence rooted in seaports and the company's renewed commitment to its traditional activities, while introducing an upward-sloping "road" to represent logistical integration and a focus on growth. The colors blue and gray were chosen to convey trust, professionalism, and a serious image.

"The change of logo stems from the need to better represent the Group's strategic vision and identity. Our future growth" states CEO Paolo Cornetto in a letter addressed to all employees, "will be about the full realization of our vision, driven by ever greater integration between port and logistics activities. The new logo embodies our commitment to customer service, which can thus be immediately understood by the market simply by looking at it."

FHP Holding Portuale (FHP), owned by F2i SGR - Italy's largest independent infrastructure fund manager – is the leading Italian maritime operator in the bulk cargo sector, operating in the Northern Adriatic and Tyrrhenian Seas through 8 port terminals, warehouses and intermodal terminals, 12 operating companies, and over 500 staff, with 10 million tons of goods handled annually.

FHP is an integrated service network in the bulk, various goods, general and project cargo logistics sectors, and has terminals in Carrara, Livorno, Monfalcone, and Marghera.
